

CONSEQUENCES FOR INJUSTICE

Introduction

Have you ever wondered why bad things seem to happen to good people ? Or to God's people ? And why do bad people seem to prosper ? Do you wonder where God is in these situations ? Does God simply ignore injustices ? The book of Habakkuk illustrates that patience and enduring faith in God's plans will always lead to righteousness.

Objectives

During today's lesson, you will:

- Recognize why injustice will be punished
- Appreciate the fairness of divine punishment of injustice
- Decide to follow God's commandment to act with justice

Scripture

(KJV) Habakkuk 2:6-14

Devotional Reading, Psalm 130

About Today's Lesson...

We are currently living in some very trying times. And during this time of struggle, we need to always remember that our God is still in control ! God still loves us and seeks to have a relationship with us, despite our shortcomings.

In today's lesson, the prophet Habakkuk's relationship with God allowed him to question God regarding what he perceived as a lack of justice for the Israelites in the southern kingdom of Judah. Habakkuk was heartbroken by what he saw and apparently had a difficult time understanding why God would continue to let evil continue. God's subsequent responses to Habakkuk give us encouragement and hope in the face of today's adversities and life challenges.

Join us today as we explore the consequences for injustice.
