About Today's Lesson...

In this day and age, during these troubled times, it seems that bad news overshadows good news. And during the time of the prophet Isaiah, a similar situation existed. Bad news regarding the Israelites' behavior was unfortunately prevalent. Idol worship, political corruption, mistreatment of the poor, and other injustices ruled the day. The people had lost their zeal for faithfully serving God. But good news was on the way...

In today's lesson, the prophet Isaiah presents a vision of a coming Messiah - a Servant of God who executes justice. And the New Testament clearly confirms that Jesus Christ is the promised Messiah and Lord. And this is indeed good news ! "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16, KJV).
