

IDENTIFIED

Introduction

Often times, we are defined by feelings, desires, and even the opinions of others. The culture we live in also seeks to define us. However, as Christians, we should seek the truth regarding how God defines us. For we are who God says we are - end of story. We are not accidents or mistakes. God wonderfully made us for His divine purposes.

Today's Lesson Objectives

- Discover who you really are as a child of God's kingdom
- Recognize God as the best source for revealing your true identity
- Behave in accordance with your new or true identity

Scripture

Ephesians 1:1-8; 2:4-10, 21-22 and Psalms 139:1-18 (KJV)

Who Are You ?

About Today's Lesson...

Have you ever asked yourself any of the following questions:

- Who am I - really ?
- Why am I here ?
- What is my purpose in life ?

If you have ever pondered any of these questions, you are probably not alone. These soul-searching questions strike at the core of our very being. And answers to these intriguing questions can have a profound impact on how we view ourselves and on how we respond to the world around us. So it is important that we seek truthful, God-given responses to these questions.

We are all on an identity journey. And as a believer, knowing who God says you are can help you discover and live out your true identity. Join us for today's lesson to uncover who you really are in Christ Jesus.
